School Mission and Goals

Education is an opportunity provided to the children of the district by their community. The Board expects that all children will recognize the value of this opportunity and work diligently to help ensure that their maximum potentials are realized. Excellence is a habit, which our district will strive to instill in each student and staff member.

All students have the right to learn and any disruption that takes away from the ability of teachers to teach and students to learn is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Our Responsible Thinking program makes students responsible for their learning and also makes them accountable for their behavior. This program fosters a safe, orderly, and scholarly environment thus promoting learning.
